The screenshot shows the MacKeylogger Monitor web interface. The top navigation bar includes the user email 'melissa@tbst.com.au', a search icon, a notification icon with a red '7', and an 'Account' dropdown. The left sidebar lists various monitoring categories: Select agent(s), Work attendance, Time tracker, Computer logs, Keystrokes (selected), Clipboard, Screenshots, Application usage, Keyword logs, System events, Agent alerts, Website history, Chat conversations, E-mail, File logs, Print jobs, USB device log, Remote tools, and Settings. The main content area is titled 'Keystrokes' and features a table with columns for Time, User, EXE file, Application name, and Keystrokes. The table contains 12 rows of data, including timestamps, user 'melissafoote', application names like 'Mail', 'Microsoft Excel', and 'Google Chrome', and captured keystrokes such as 'as', 's', 'ass', 'ess', and 'fo-hannahtang elise'.
